

Battle's Over: Commemorative Events in Allhallows reflecting Armistice Day Sunday 11th November 2018.

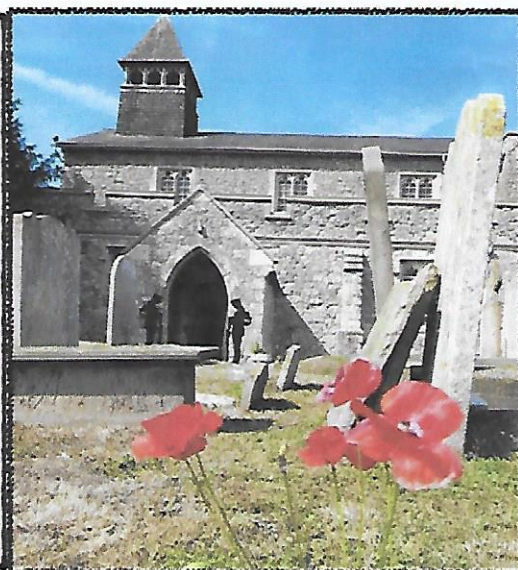

A joint venture between the Friends of All Saints and Allhallows Parish Council.

Across the UK, villages will be marking the 100th anniversary of the WWI Armistice Day. This will be a co-ordinated schedule shared by villages across the country.

Allhallows Parish Council have asked the Friends of All Saints to host and manage the entire day.

 Be a part of this historic event *****

You are invited to take part; see the schedule of events below. Join in, as the whole country comes together, to mark the 100th anniversary.

Everyone is welcome. Pay your respects and visit the church to find out more about those who fell, who came from Allhallows. These Events are sponsored by Allhallows Parish Council.

At the evening Service, the names will be read out of the 11 fallen soldiers from Allhallows ******

Battle's Over: Schedule of Events on Sunday 11th November 2018

- 6:00am: "Sleep in Peace": Bagpipes played in the village to welcome the dawn (Bagpipes to be played in the Church grounds and possibly other locations in Allhallows, too)
- 6:15am: Breakfast in the church (all welcome)
- 10:45am: Church Service (laying of the wreaths and including the 2 Minutes Silence at 11am)
- 12:15pm: Tea and cake at the village hall, with the unveiling of a new WWI Airfield Memorial plaque
- 6:55pm: The Last Post (played in the church grounds)
- 7.00pm: Beacons of Light (beacon lit in church grounds)
- 7:05pm: Church Bell rings out
- 7:10pm: Church Service (during this Service, the names will be read out of the 11 fallen soldiers from Allhallows)